

Events in Society Circles

THE week just opening is crowded from the beginning to the last hour with social events, the dullness of the stock market seeming to be without effect so far as society is concerned. Numerous small Sunday night suppers are arranged for this evening, the chief one being by Captain and Mrs. W. B. Graham of Fort Douglas, who will entertain a number of their friends. Monday Mrs. A. H. Eason and Mrs. W. F. Jensen will entertain at a luncheon at the home of the latter, 1203 Third avenue. Mrs. Ashby D. Cleveland will entertain that day at a bridge tea for Miss Loren Leary.

The ladies of the East Side Guild of St. Mark's cathedral will entertain their friends in the afternoon at a bridge tea at the home of Mrs. Stephen A. Bailey, 473 First avenue. About twenty tables have been taken and the affair promises to be a most successful one.

Mrs. Eugene B. Palmer will entertain the members of the Fortnightly club at her home Tuesday. Mrs. Richard A. Reeves will entertain at a large and elaborate luncheon Wednesday at the Alta club, and the usual mid-week luncheon at the Country club will be on that day. Dr. and Mrs. J. C. Hanchett will entertain at a dinner at their home Thursday evening. Mrs. F. E. Macey will be the hostess on Friday at a bridge tea at her home. Mrs. George I. Savage will entertain a few of the most intimate friends of Mrs. William H. Dale at a luncheon for her on that day, and Miss Glen Walker will entertain her young friends that evening at a German at the Walker home. Mrs. J. H. Fredrickson will entertain a few friends at a bridge tea on Saturday for Miss Loren Leary at her apartments in the Bransford.

Many Salt Lakeers who became acquainted with the two gifted musicians mentioned will be deeply interested in the following, which comes from San Francisco. Besides the fact that Mr. Mandelbrod's orchestra in Germany requires his presence there were other and more personal reasons which he gave his Salt Lake friends for his departure, a certain fraction having waited long for him to conclude his engagement with Heinemann. The item follows:

"John Mandelbrod, the gifted accompanist to the famous 'Lieder' singer, Alexander Heinemann, and to whom Heinemann, in referring to his own career, called his 'shadow,' left San Francisco yesterday for Germany. Heinemann was almost in tears at the parting. 'He is the greatest accompanist I ever saw to—the greatest in the world—and I shall never get another like him,' was the high tribute he paid Mandelbrod. Mandelbrod goes to Hanover where he will conduct an orchestra in a light opera company."

From London comes the news, under date of May 14, that Ambassador and Mrs. Reid presented five of their American friends at court. Among the five was Miss Isabel McLaughlin, formerly of this city and later of San Francisco, "stepdaughter" of Dr. W. A. McKeen of Deseretshire. The account adds that "Miss McLaughlin wore white chiffon, silver embroidered with a real point lace train and pearl ornaments."

Mrs. Edward Kennen, daughter of Richard Kennen, the American ambassador to Vienna, also well known here, was another one of those presented.

Two members of the Hal Russell family are already here to spend the summer with the Dwyer family. Mrs. Russell and Miss Lorna having arrived yesterday. Mr. Russell was here last with "The Man From Home," at the Colonial, and still with that company. When that engagement closes he will join his wife and daughter here for a vacation. Mrs. Russell finished her engagement with "The Deep Purple" London company some weeks ago, and sailed a month ago from Liverpool with her daughter, who had been attending school in England. They have been house guests of the August Belmonts at their country home on Long Island for the past fortnight or so.

The band concerts at Fort Douglas have proven extremely popular in the short time they have been the order. The two afternoon concerts of Wednesday and Friday were attended by many music lovers and also friends of the post people from town. The plan at present is to have the Wednesday concert on the bandstand and the Friday afternoon concert in front of the commanding officers' quarters.

Mrs. William P. Kiser and Mrs. William D. Donohoe were the hostesses yesterday afternoon at a beautifully appointed bridge tea at the Donohoe home in Federal Heights, the affair being given in compliment to Miss Margaret Dills, Miss Loren Leary and Mrs. C. R. Aley. The home was bright with purple lilacs through all the rooms, and purple was the shade used in all the accessories. Five tables of bridge were played in the early afternoon, and later as many more friends came in to enjoy tea. Mrs. Richard A. Keyes and Mrs. W. W. Armstrong poured tea and coffee, and assisting them were a number of the younger matrons and girls.

One charity organization has hit upon a very successful way of conducting a charity card party and awarding those necessary evils of card parties—prizes. The plan followed at the large one given the past week, one which proved very successful, was for each member of the organization to donate a prize—something handsome enough to be offered to those who had paid the money and therefore expected something. These prizes, ranging in size from something as large as a hand box to something as small as a penknife, were tied daintily and placed on a large table, from which each winner was allowed to select her prize by feeling it.

A work of real value, not alone to the community, but to the girls themselves, has at last been taken up by the younger society girls who are earnestly engaged in the work of the Free Kindergarten and Neighborhood House association. The girls have formed themselves an auxiliary board, and the members are making themselves useful in a variety of ways, but especially in helping with the daytime work at the Neighborhood House. The young girls who belong will hold a special business meeting at the Hotel Utah for the purpose of perfecting their organization and electing officers.

The Gamma Phi sorority of the University of Utah will give a "silver tea" next Thursday afternoon from 3 until 6 o'clock, at the home of Mrs. Edwin Kimball, 124 South Sixth East street. Among the patronesses are Mrs. Edwin Kimball, Mrs. William Spry, Mrs. J. T. Kingbury, Mrs. C. S. Kinney, Mrs. E. E. Critchlow, Mrs. Byron Cummings, Mrs. Selden Clawson, Mrs. Frank B. Stephens, Mrs. Frederick W. Reynolds, Mrs. W. Mont. Ferry, Mrs. Glen Miller, Mrs. A. H. Peabody, Mrs. A. J. Gorman, Mrs. A. H. Parsons, Mrs. E. S. Perry, Miss Esther Nelson and Miss Virginia Bush. The hostesses have extended a cordial invitation to the public.

The following from the Riverside Enterprise of California, published May 16, will be read with interest by many local friends: "A very happy little dinner and theater party were given last evening by Mr. and Mrs. Stanley J. Castleman, Mrs. Rugg and Miss Cameron in compliment to Prof. J. J. McClellan, who is leaving today for his home in Salt Lake. Covers were laid for fourteen at a table set in the patio of the beautiful home of the Castlemans on Rubidoux drive. The table was graced with a cluster of gorgeous Shirley poppies. After dinner the party saw Marjorie Rambau in 'Merely Mary Ann.' Those making up the party were Mrs. Alice Frederickson, Frank S. Borton, Frederick O'Brien, Thomas Giles, Mr. McClellan and Douglas McClellan of Salt Lake. Girard Van Court, Muriel and Carol Castleman, Mrs. Rugg, Miss Cameron and Mr. and Mrs. Castleman."

Mrs. Charles M. Bell entertained yesterday at a beautifully appointed luncheon at her home on First avenue in compliment to her niece, Miss Emma Zane, the guests being mainly the members of the senior class at Rowland Hall. The house was all in the beautiful Spanish iris, and all the table appointments were of yellow to match. The other guests were Miss Clara I. Edmonson, Miss Irene Davison, Miss Humphrey, Miss Florence Ware, Miss Marjorie Pearson, Miss Bessie Callow, Miss Dorothy Bailey, Miss Ruth Cooper, Miss Dorothy Gates, Miss Lucy Bullis, Miss Asenath Cowan, Miss Margaret Wecker, Miss Mabel Holt, Miss Marion Payne.

A pleasant event of yesterday was another in a series of matinee parties, at which Mrs. Pauline Sands entertained a number of her friends at the Orpheum.

The Young Ladies' sodality of St. Mary's cathedral are arranging a unique affair in the form of a garden party, to be given in the cathedral hall on Wednesday evening, May 22. The hall will be converted into a beautiful garden of flowers and foliage. There will be a Japanese tea garden, fountains, well, evens camp, May pole dance, candy booth, cafe, etc. The following committees have been appointed to take charge of the affair: Arrangements—Misses Margaret McMahon, Anna Rotzler, Katherine Driscoll, Decorations—Misses Grace Sullivan, Clara Driscoll, May pole dance—Misses Agnes McMahon, Anna Rotzler, Caroline Koch, Japanese tea garden—Misses Clara Meyer, Margaret Ward, G. Fitzpatrick, Cafe—Misses Lela Scott, Mary North, Katherine Driscoll, Fountains—Misses Agnes McMahon, Lucille Stephens, Lucille McDaniel, Candy booth—Misses Julia Stephens, Isabella Griffin, Eva Kass, Gypsy camp—Miss Ella Canning, Kathleen Graves. The affair is for the purpose of completing the beautiful stage curtain the sodality has presented to the hall, and also to assist in purchasing other furnishings necessary for the hall.

A recent issue of the Army and Navy Journal contains the announcement of the death of Mrs. Margaret McCormick, the mother of Mrs. Paul C. Potter, who was one of the social favorites of Fort Douglas a year or so ago. Mrs. Potter becomes heiress with three other sisters to an immense amount of wealth. Mrs. McCormick having been the widow of William McCormick, one of the wealthiest men of San Francisco.

Mrs. William J. Browning entertained a few of the most intimate friends of Mrs. William H. Dale yesterday at a luncheon at her home on North Main street, the guests number- ing eight. Expensive decorations of white and yellow tulips forming the focal part. White daisy lace covered the table which was lighted by yellow candles with yellow shades.

Two of the country homes near the city were scenes of gaiety all day yesterday, ushering in the summer season with a rush. Miss Evelyn Moore took the members of the Gamma Phi sorority out to the Movie farm to enjoy the entire week-end there. Miss Erminie Walker took a party of her girl friends out to Briarcliffe, the H. W. Walker country place, the party leaving here in the early morning, and making the trip by motor. The guests were Miss Ruth Treweek, Miss Lydia White, Miss Gladys Goren, Miss Grace Gray, Miss Zina Reese, Miss Mary Johnson, Mrs. Albert M. Dake, Mrs. George A. Eaton, Mrs. John Buford, Mrs. Foote, Mrs. Edward Hawks and Mrs. O'Neill.

The photograph of Miss Cleo Craig, which is seen on this page, is one of the rare works of art in local photography, having been awarded the salon honor among western photographers for the year 1912. The picture is suggestive of several of the modern paintings, two by Greuze and one by Burne-Jones being especially noted. It was not posed as a copy of any one painting, but it is a striking example of what can be done along art lines in photography.

The officers at Fort Douglas have organized a regimental polo club and with some good play going on they expect shortly to be able to pick a polo team. The army players so far are Captain Frederick G. Kelland, Lieutenants Parker, Schultz, Ditto, Wallace and Rogers. Several of the men in town have talked some of getting up a club here to play and it is likely that the movement may be given a definite impulse shortly.

Absorbs Skin, Chases Wrinkles—Young Again

"The shock at beholding myself in the glass after nine long weeks abroad, nearly caused a relapse," writes Emily Colson in Home Queen. "The faded face, with its lines of illness and worry, seemed thirty years older. Now, I thought, I could not attend my chum's wedding, eleven days off, to which I had looked hopefully forward."

"She herself came to my rescue. She procured an ounce of mercurized wax, which she bade me spread on like cold cream, washing it off next morning. Applied nightly, this apparently absorbed the withered skin, so gently I experienced no discomfort. Upon the wedding morn the pallid complexion had entirely given way to one of youthful color and loveliness."

"And there wasn't a wrinkle. This due to a wash lotion made by dissolving an ounce of exfolite in a half pint witch hazel. The daily face bath had dispersed every line."

TAKE TOO BIG CHANCES

Why is it that men and women will never learn that overwork and nervous strain will certainly ruin health? Every day the papers tell of the dreadful results of overtaxing one's strength, yet the others keep right on without profiting by the lesson.

Henry Jacobs of Ninth avenue, N. Y., went through this experience and now writes in a letter: "I was in bad health for two years, very nervous and weak, no appetite, could not sleep well and had no ambition or energy. I was getting worse all the time."

"But since I began taking Vinol there is a wonderful difference. I have gained 14 pounds in less than two months, have a splendid appetite and can enjoy my meals. My nerves are strong and I sleep soundly. I simply feel fine now, which shows what Vinol did for me."

Our delicious cod liver and iron remedy, Vinol, will do as much for all other run-down, worn-out people, if they will only give it a chance. There is no risk for we give back the money if Vinol fails to satisfy you.
